Gianna Matreaux is a graduate of North High School. She will be majoring in Cognitive Sciences at the University of California, Irvine. Gianna has been involved in the North High School Saxon Regiment and has earned the 2023 statewide champion title through the organization. She has also been active in her community, volunteering and tutoring in the California Scholarship Federation and the English Language Multicultural Advisory Committee.