

Sean Shibasaki from Bonita High School in La Verne will be an undeclared major at the University of California, Irvine. He has been involved with basketball and golf all throughout high school. Sean has also volunteered at a foster home for 7 years since he was in 5th grade. Sean got an internship during the summer before his senior year with the Superior Court in Norwalk CA where he got to work with judges and lawyers.