

Keimi Santiago graduated from North Torrance High school but grew up in Gardena. She is committed to California State Fullerton and majoring in Business Finance. Her interests include playing and watching basketball, traveling, and spending time with friends and family.