Taiji Yamada of South High School will be majoring in chemical engineering on the pre-medical pathway at the University of California, San Diego (UCSD). He has worked as a tutor for all four years and has competed in multiple ski racing events over the past two years. He has a strong interest in STEM and hopes to pursue a career in the medical field.